About New Parks and Boulevards

Owing to the neglect of Englewood people, and by this we mean all west of State st. from 55th st. south to the city limits, we have had very poor representation before the South Park Board and as a consequence we have few parks and few boulevards. In the meantime, Hyde Park is boulevarded and parked to such a degree that they are fixed for half a century ahead. This is due to the fact that four of the five commissioners live east of State st. but that 60 per cent of the taxes paid to the South Park Board comes from west of State st. and that about two-thirds of the money paid by the Englewood or west part of the district is expended in the east or Hyde Park district. This is not fair and we should not submit to it. True, we have an excellent representative in Mr. John Bain, but he needs support and he needs at least another member from this district. The Gresham Park Association at considerable time and expense secured the majority of signatures of property owners to extend Loomis blvd. through to 87th st. and that part of the town alone has paid over $500,000.00 in park taxes for which they have received nothing. Gresham wants a park and Englewood wants a small central park, which is her due, and we must get together and get after the board if we want any benefits. It is the time to move now, and if we pass it over now, the matter will be delayed for years.

The Misses Guinane of 6125 Stewart ave. were both victims of the influenza last week, but are now considerably improved.

The registration lists will be revised tomorrow night. Tuesday was the only registration day before the aldermanic elections Feb. 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hall, the former Marlowe stock company favorites, are playing an engagement at McVicker's theatre this week, closing Sunday. They will then leave for Pacific coast to play the entire western circuit. The papers speak very highly of their clever work and their Englewood friends will be pleased to learn of their success.

Landlords and High Rents

It seems that rents must be advanced another notch or two this spring, and the tenant must come up or lose his happy home. Another increase to many seems most unreasonable, but to the thinking it is expected. Every department of cost of maintaining a building has increased, in many cases fifty per cent. The festive janitor must have more pay; the decorator who is generally called to "go over" a flat every spring, demands much higher wage, as also does the plumber, and he is a regular visitor at the rented building; the carpenter and even the man who hauls the garbage and ashes has doubled his fee. Add to this the forty per cent increase in taxes, the water rates, and coal at $3.00 and over a ton, not counting the handsome levy the income tax makes on the landlord's little pile, and you will find that he is justified. We know of landlords who would be perfectly satisfied to receive six per cent on their investment, and would turn over their properties to responsible persons who will take charge of their buildings and guarantee that amount, and surely a landlord is entitled to six per cent on his investment. Rents have not "gone up" in proportion to clothing, groceries, meats and other necessities, or with the general raise in wages, but it is always popular to give the landlord a kick, and sometimes he don't deserve it. In this case he does not.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY
6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.
Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Dear Brother Bill:

The opening gun of the campaign for the raising of funds for the national convention has been fired and I feel very certain you desire to do your part to assure the convention's success.

Our campaign must be intensive and closed within three weeks.

With the welfare of Elkdom at heart I respectfully ask that you attend all meetings called by your ward organization or, in the event you wish to assist the trades committee in its work, then kindly call at our campaign headquarters at our club house immediately.

Do your part and you will be proud to feel that the greatest event in Elkdom was made possible as a result of your effort.

Every Elk should be registered either as working with the ward organization or trades committee.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,
Justine F. McCarthy,
Exalted Ruler.

You'll surely be told as Miss Talmadge unfolds

LINDEN THEATRE

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, watch linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra

COMING

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6th and 7th. Enid Bennett in "The Woman in the Suitcase." Here's a romance brimming with fun and adventure, yet big with the things that count in human lives. She found that the man she honored most was living a lie, so she played her own little game and trapped him. She advertised for a live young man to show her the "sights" of New York. Then she went the "rounds." At length she met the woman who was wrecking her home, and—you'll want to see what happened after that. A truly wonderful picture.

Sunday and Monday, February 8th and 9th. Two of the new favorites, Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "What's Your Husband Doing?" You all remember their last picture, "Twenty-three and a Half Hours Leave," one of the best you ever saw, wasn't it? This is the second picture the new "Twin Stars" have made. They are living up to the reputation they made from the start. If you missed "Twenty-three and a Half Hours Leave" don't miss this one. If you saw the first we are sure you won't miss it!

Tuesday, Feb. 10th. Bryant Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars." Try this recipe for Zippy Home Brew: Dissolve one pound of sugar in a gallon of grape juice. Then go to a fruit store and—stop on the way and see the rest in "The Six Best Cellars." You'll laugh till you're weak! He boasted the "best stocked wine cellar in town." Then prohibition set in, and he invited the social elect to sample his rare old vintages. When they came, with their mouths watering, he went down stairs and found—every bottle empty. P. S.—It has nothing to do with books!

Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 11th and 12th. Beautiful and talented Alice Brady in "The Fear Market," from the play by Amelia Rives, directed by Kenneth Webb. The story of a parasite society paper which New York fears, and of the daughter of its editor and owner who becomes involved in the meshes which "Town Tattle" weaves for another woman. A drama of New York's well dressed, self-satisfied society and the parasites who prey upon its pleasures and feed on crumbs stolen from the tables of the rich. The ending is a pleasant surprise.

Coming—William Farnum in "Heart Strings," his latest triumph. A drama of the sacrifice of a brother for his little sister. A story of tender love, passion, misunderstanding and fearful vengeance. A play that will charm every man, woman and child, with America's greatest creator of strong roles at his best.

E. A. R. THEATRE

THOS. BEATTY'S — TELEPHONE WENT. 7198 — WOODWORTH AVE. & 79TH ST.

Few theatres in Chicago are so essentially neighborhood houses as is the pretty E. A. R. Theatre at 79th St. and Woodworth Ave. Manager "Johnny" Kempton, one of the cleverest booking agents in the big city, always sees that his house secures the cleanest and best pictures released. A glance at their displays in the Times or their reading notices will convince you of the up-to-date character of E. A. R. shows. The grand organ and extraordinary fine music is a feature appreciated by the discriminating public and as a consequence there is always a fine audience to witness every show, matinee or night, at the honey E. A. R.

Friday, Feb. 6th. Robert Warwick in "The Tree of Knowledge." An old legend says that the tempter in Eden was not a serpent, but a beautiful woman, Lilith, the demon wife of Adam before the fatal apple was eaten. These two had tasted of life's forbidden fruit—and he alone had paid. A great picture with a great cast. International News and something good chosen.

Saturday, Feb. 7th. Billie Lorraine (by arrangement with Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr.) in "Wanted—A Husband." Kid Broad, the ex-pugilist, has one of the chief roles. The Kid is quite an actor at that and in his role as Miss Burke's trainer, who according to the story transforms her from an "ugly duckling" into a radiant beauty, the ex-battler is thoroughly at home. A lively match between him and the pretty star, in which she at least pulls the punches, is one of the novel features of the film, which is described as a thoroughly delightful romantic comedy. Also Pictograph and a good comedy.

Sunday, Feb. 8th. Bryant Washburn in "Too Much Johnson." A scandalous tale of an erring spouse who put the "fry" in triangle. But too much mother-in-law spoiled his fun, and his plans petered out like this. A roaring riot of laughs from the famous play by William Gillette. Century comedy and Current Events.

Monday, Feb. 9th. The popular star, J. Warren Kerrigan, in "Live Sparks." This is considered one of his best productions and gives him an excellent opportunity of presenting his best efforts. Be sure and see it. We thoroughly recommend this picture to our patrons.

Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 11th and 12th—Lincoln's anniversary. Constance Talmadge in "Two Weeks." "Two Weeks" is the story of a chorus girl who leaps to fame, and who, to escape the importunities of a too rash lover, flees to the home of three crusty bachelors, where she upsets all rules and traditions and vamps her way through their hard shells and into their hearts. Also an added attraction, "Joe Martin," the educated monkey, in a cracker-jack comedy, "A Bake Dool Doodle." See it.

Coming—extra special—two big days—Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "What's Your Husband Doing?" "It's easy to fool a woman." So saying, he phoned Friend Wife he'd been called away on business. That very night—a raid! On a naughty place called Honeysuckle Inn. You know—cops, terror, wagon. "Great heavens, my reputation!" lockup. "Morning, Judge," an' everything! And when the shivering culprits were arraigned, from one cell came Hubby; from another cell—wife! What? Had they been? Well, rather! You'll want to come and see! Also as an added attraction, our star funny comedian, Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle in "The Garage." The story is of Fatty, the helper in a garage, which, by the way, is also the town jail and firehouse. Fatty loves Molly, the pretty daughter of the owner, but is forced to go through many trials before he finally wins the girl for his own.

It is a pleasure to visit the Harvard, not only on account of the beauty of the house, its wonderful architectural adaptability to screen use and perfection in presentation of the silent drama, and the sterling worth of its musical department, but to the uniform courtesy and kindness bestowed on all patrons. Manager "Jimmy" Costin is indefatigable in his own efforts to please his patrons, and his entire force from "Brother" Sam, down to the smallest usher, make it an object to see that every patron really enjoys his visit to the Harvard. The large comfortable seats, the roomy aisles and distance between seats renders unseemly crowding unnecessary and adds greatly to the enjoyment of the excellent programs offered at every performance, be it matinee or regular evening performance. Ladies and children appreciate this uniform courtesy and consider a smile from "Jimmy" and his staff as part of the show and pay the price willingly to the charming little lady in the ticket office.

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6th and 7th, matinee and night. Do you like pictures with just a touch of spice, enough to make you smile but not enough to offend? Do you like real humor and a good laugh? Don't fail to see the screen's celeverest comedienne, Constance Talmadge, in her new saucy play, "Two Weeks," adapted from Anthony Wharton's play, "At the Barn." A tale of a Broadway chorus girl's adventure with three country bachelors. It's spicy, it's piquant, it's naughty—but it's nice. Also Pathe News, Mutt & Jeff Cartoon and other attractions.

Sunday and Monday, Feb. 8th and 9th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m., big double feature program, Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "What's Your Husband Doing?" Doris May and Douglas MacLean have "arrived." We cannot remember a motion picture star whose very first vehicle met with such an enthusiastic response as has "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave," the Mary Roberts Rinehart story in which these two young people made their debuts as comedy co-stars. It is not surprising. The Rinehart tale is the first. The second is "What's Your Husband Doing?" adapted from George V. Hobart's stage farce of the same name, which was a smashing hit on Broadway. It's a hilariously funny mix-up of young wives and husbands, radiant with the joy of life and packed with wholesome laughs. Also an added attraction to our regular show, the king of laughter, Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, in his funniest comedy, "The Garage." Fatty and Buster are helpers in a composite garage, police and fire department, run by Molly's father. Fatty is in love with the girl, but Rube, the father, tells him he has no chance. Fatty is disturbed by the town dude who has been very attentive to Molly lately, even going so far as to take her out in his car. Buster decides to help Fatty in his courtship and they plan to make the dude as foolish as possible, when in Molly's presence. Scads and scads of things happen. Come and see them. It's great.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 10th and 11th, matinee and night, Mabel Normand in "Pinto." Even better than "Mickey." Miss Normand is absolutely at home in the part of a ranch girl. Her serious moments are as convincing as her comic antics. As the outraged owner of a pony stolen by Mexicans, Pinto becomes positively ferocious when she captures the thieves and demands that the cowboys beat them up. Her versatility is given a fresh field to plow in "Pinto," and she stimulates laughter, stirs sympathies and generally holds the attention in a tense grip by the sheer power of her acting. Attired in chaps, checkered skirt and boots with impressive-looking spurs, and wearing a big sombrero at a business-like angle, Mable Normand struts through her latest Goldwyn picture, "Pinto," with all the joy that her dynamic little personality can summon up. Also Burton Holmes Travelogues and other attractions.

Civic Music Chorus Rehearsal

All members of the Civic Music Chorus are requested to be at rehearsal at Hamilton Park, promptly at 8 o'clock, next Monday evening. Only three weeks now remain before the giving of the annual concert by the chorus.

This year, instead of being included in the regular Sunday afternoon services at the park, the concert will take place in the evening, Feb. 24th, and will be made a specially festive occasion. There will be short addresses by members of the board of directors of the Civic Music Assn. of Chicago; community singing, and a talk by the chorus director, John Norton, on the possibilities in Hamilton Park for a magnificent choral society. The musical program will be made up of a group of Shakespearean songs, solos by professional singers, and the cantata, by William Lester, "The Story of the Bell."

Ever try Barkey's shoes? 249 63d. Ad

Albert Carlson of the Elsdon post office is seriously ill.

Send us in your local news. We are glad to publish it free.

Mr. Jacob Frank of the Halsted theatre is still confined to his home by illness.

Work will be commenced next week on the extension of Robinson's big shoe store at 6206 Halsted st.

A very complete line of blank books of all kinds, single leaf sheets and books, office supplies and stationery of all kinds at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd st. (Adv.)

Mrs. M. K. Wilson of 6340 Halsted st. writes from Los Angeles, Cal., that Mr. Wilson's health is greatly improved, and he is now out of immediate danger.

Something should be done to compel property owners or occupants to clean their sidewalks of snow, slush and ice. Some of our walks are a disgrace to a civilized community.

The project for uniform lighting of 63rd and Halsted sts. is moving along nicely and the committee hope to have the lights installed early in the spring.

Mr. W. F. Hayden of Hayden & Stone is enjoying a winter trip through Florida and the south. He writes from St. Augustine that he and Mrs. Hayden are having a delightful time.

The Englewood Moose hope to occupy their new hall in the Sissman block, 62nd and Halsted sts., early in March. The Moose have a ten years lease and will fit it up as one of the finest lodge and assembly halls in the city.

The New Stratford theatre is looming up very beautiful and will be a great addition to that part of the street. The apartments fronting on Halsted and Union ave. are about all rented even before they are finished, and a demand is made for the extra store rooms.

The campaign politically is opening and there will be a contest for aldermen, but it looks very much as if Jimmy Rea would be chosen committeeman without opposition on the Republican side.

If there is a janitor or man having spare time living near 69th St. and Ashland Ave. who would take the janitorship of a church in that neighborhood, will he phone Prospect 6842 any week day before noon or between 6 and 7 P. M.?

The soldier boys connected with the recruiting office at 6901 Halsted st. are as nice a lot of fellows as it has been our pleasure to meet; they are old timers and have had soldiering experiences all over the world and tell many interesting stories of campaigning. They enjoy visitors so don't be afraid to drop in on them at any time.

The opening of Union and Lowe aves. from 63rd to 61st sts. will be a great convenience for Halsted st. and we hear that condemnation proceedings will be commenced on Union ave. very soon. It will be only a matter of a few years until all of that property will be taken for a central park at any rate.

Home Buyers—If you are contemplating buying a home in spring make your selection early, as the demand will exceed the supply ten to one. Look at the following six room brick bungalows ready April 1st. Terms. 1824 W. Marquette Rd., price $7,950; 8801-03-05 S. Carpenter St., price $6,950 up; 8512-18-24 Manistee Ave., price $5,950 up; also one and one-half story frame residences at 8517-19-23-25 and 27 Marquette Ave., price $4,150, terms to suit. Kelly Bros., builders, 6504 Wentworth Ave. Englewood 5171. (Adv. 2-13)

Women—An Opportunity

We have positions in our stock room for three or four dependable women (not girls) who wish permanent work. The work is light, it requires no experience and offers a good future. Sanitary Brush Co., 2333 S. Wabash ave., 2nd floor. (Adv.)

LaRue with a force of experts are at your service every day at 712 63rd st., up to 9 o'clock at night, to assist you in making out the schedule free of cost, and they are mighty nice fellows at that. Big Plans for the Anniversary Week of the Boy Scout Organization

In every city, town and hamlet of the United States where there is a Boy Scout troop, the parents and friends of the organization will wear square knots made by the boys as a reminder to "do a good turn daily" during the week of the tenth anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, Feb. 8-14, 1920.

The anniversary week will be termed "Universal Good Turn Week" throughout the country.

Some troops are planning father-and-son banquets, a parent night, and other things of interest to their friends.

On Friday, Feb. 13, 1920, at 8 o'clock, a huge rally of the scouts and their parents will be held at the Chicago Normal College auditorium. This will be a home talent rally; the program will be made up of stunts presented by the various troops. Banners will be awarded; diplomas presented to graduates of patrol leaders' courses. Music will be furnished by the South-West District fife and drum corps and Scout band from Troop 619.

A district hike has been planned for the 14th to the sand dunes of Indiana for all scouts of the district.

On Friday evening, last, Troop 632, Prof. E. S. Riggs, scoutmaster, meeting at People's Liberal church, observed its first anniversary with a parent night, at which time the scouts put on a scouting program for the benefit of those present. The program was arranged and conducted entirely by the boys.

Troop 619, S. L. Frank, arranged a scout entertainment last Thursday evening at the Thoburn M. E. church for the benefit of their friends.

Lincoln's Birthday Entertainment

Next Thursday evening at the Englewood Baptist church a band concert and entertainment will be given by the Englewood Baptist band and male quartette. Rev. Clyde Sheldon Shepard will give an artistic reading of his funniest and newest presentation, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife." Admission free.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies' Bargain Week Day Matinees Seats 15c

"The French Frolics," the three time leader of the wheel all new 1920 edition, reaches into the heart of real burlesque with its "Frenchie-Girlie" atmosphere and burlesque patrons of Englewood Theatre, where "The French Frolics" will be seen during the week of Feb. 8th, with daily matinees. Everyone will agree that the entertainment outclasses the classiest from curtain to curtain. "The French Frolics" with its never failing fourteen of beauty girls of the French type, and music of the infectious brand, and its high lights of drollery and sparkles of wit, provides an entertainment that is actualy a tonic to restore youth.

Lena Daley, the "Smile Girl" live wire soubrette, who is copied by many but equaled by none, and Harry (Hello Jake) Fields, the comedian, whose barbed humor makes the laughing continuous all the while he is on the stage, top the cast. Miss Daley has a stunning wardrobe this season.

Harry (Hello Jake) Fields with the "French Frolics" Next Week

Mr. Fields, always in the van of comedians, has a part which affords the greatest opportunity of his career and he handles it in his inimitable way.

They are surrounded by a marvelous cast which is far superior to last three season's companies, when the "French Frolics" proved to be the biggest drawing attraction on the American circuit.

NATIONAL THEATRE

The announcement that the National Theatre Company is to produce "Our New Minister" at the National Theatre for one week starting Sunday matinee, Feb. 8th, is a guarantee that one of the best plays of the season will be seen.

"Our New Minister," the great character play in three acts, owes its popularity to the true to nature characters and the absolutely natural small town atmosphere of the entire play. Dealing mainly with whether religion should be narrow and sorrowful, or, whether it should be "practiced," and with a light heart, admitting of a few innocent pleasures, the entire play is full of truth, told, not in a preachy way.

Another vital question taken up and threshed out to your satisfaction (we hope) is—should a man who has been in prison for some more or less petty offense, be allowed to return to his home and start all over, with the idea of living right the rest of his life?

And the daughter of this man—who should look after her while her father is serving his time?

Should she try to make an honest living doing anything she can find to do, or should she accept the attentions of some man who wants her more for her youth and beauty than for any other reason?

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress Theatre and "good show" are synonymous terms in the south part of this big city, as everyone who goes to the Empress at any time knows that they will enjoy a good show. The winter season is on with all the big extra attractions and Manager Mitchell is after them so keenly that nothing can escape, and the result is the best type of vaudeville acts that are put over any board. The chestnut may not grow on this active stage; they must be good acts, new acts and clean acts to catch the eye of the wise old Harry who presides over this splendid house. As special attractions for ladies and children the daily matinee is boomed as the big day show of the town and the large and constantly increasing attendance shows that the real people appreciate it. There is not a lonely minute at the Empress, and not an hour but you feel you have spent well if you spend it at the Empress. If you want to keep abreast of the times at all times you will become an Empress patron and see their show often, as none of the headliners from any circuit escapes booking at this big, roomy, comfortable house. In addition to the vaudeville they show a line of very good pictures in features and travel, instructive, amusing and exciting, all of which are carefully selected for their fitness for this high class house. Go to the Empress and you will find your time as well as your money well spent.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. has the reputation of putting on the most popular of the latest films, the snappy, vigorous up-to-the-minute kind that grip and bind and make you remember the show long after you have gone home. Manager Frank is one of the shrewdest of bookers and the fact that he has run a certain film at his house is evidence of its excellence.

Saturday, Feb. 7th, for one day only. The best dressed woman of the screen, Corinne Griffith, in an amazing film drama, "Human Collateral." A story of a beautiful society girl conveyed by a legal transaction into marriage for money. It's a picture that is in a class of its own and is now having a remarkable run in the loop. See it first in Englewood and at the "Halsted."

In "Human Collateral" at the "Halsted" Saturday, Feb. 7th

Coming—special—an all-star show, the greatest serial ever made, "Lightning Bryce," featuring Ann Little and Jack Hoxie, two well known Paramount stars who are at their best in this newest and most stirring of all serials. The serial is full of thrilling and exciting adventures, but these are staged in such a manner that they are logical situations developed by the plot itself, and not put in simply to liven up the story. It is a story that will be enjoyed by every one who sees it, the young folks as well as the old folks. In addition and as an exceptionally good all-star show will be Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, Wm. S. Hart, Tom Mix and others in other productions which makes up our claim for an all-star show. Plan to be on hand. Watch for the announcement of dates.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe Hippodrome this week goes under the efficient management of Harry Crawford, one of the best all 'round showmen in the country, and who will be remembered as manager of the Linden Theatre for several years. The former policy of the house to book only the best attractions will be maintained unaltered and additional features added, note of which will be made in the theatrical department of the Englewood Times.

The special extra for this coming week will be the big extra double bill for Saturday and Sunday of the Three Farmerettes in "Happy School Days" the one playlet that has won recognition on all circuits as being a most clever sketch by most clever people, with five other added attractions, all good ones, including "Ebenezer," the educated and clown mule who announces, "If you ride me you may have me." Here is laugh enough to convert a mourning party to a jamboree.

On Wednesday and Thursday, the 11th and 12th, apropos of the immortal Lincoln's birthday anniversary, the Marlowe will present a wonderful characterization of the martyred president, Abraham Lincoln, in the great Selznick production, "The Land of Opportunity." It is a picture of loyalty and shows America as the land of opportunity and so perfect is the makeup and so real does Mr. Ince make the character that it seems as if the great emancipator was walking the scenes. Starting at a New York club, where a parlor Bolshevist is spouting his ideals, it goes back to 1858, when Lincoln stopped his political campaign against Stephen A. Douglas to save the life of a boy whose mother had befriended him when he was in poverty. It also reverts back to 1823, when Lincoln was a rail splitter and when his attention was called to the opportunities to be had in this country. Lincoln's ideals, what he stood for and his influence are brought out, and the whole teaches a great lesson of loyalty so badly needed in these times of dissension. An excellent cast supports Mr. Ince, and the old-time scenes are faithfully portrayed.

Don't miss this show, or in fact any that the Marlowe presents. Big things may be expected at this popular house and every week will be a star week.

Woodlawn Theatre

We introduce to our theatrical department readers a new friend in this issue, the well known Woodlawn theatre, said to be the handsomest show house in our big city, with a lobby that rivals the opera houses of royal Vienna and Paris. It belongs to us and is only a few doors east of Cottage Grove Ave., 853-855 E. 63rd St. All cars stop almost at the door. Music de luxe is a feature and their wonderful symphony orchestra appeals to all lovers of good music. The house itself is a revelation in elegance and good taste, rich and golden, it is yet not garish but in perfect taste and a compliment to the Greek beauty and purity of architecture that Manager Karzas sought for. The Woodlawn marks an epoch in the presentation of the silent drama, and is the favorite for discriminating picture devotees.

Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6th and 7th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m., double feature program. Rollicking, frolicking Mable Normand in the snappiest, funniest and best picture of her career, "Pinto." Pinto is a girl of the West who has grown up under the guardianship of five ranchmen in whose care her father left her when he died. Her daring exploits on her pony, Legs, nearly drive the cowboys on the ranch to distraction. Consequently, they are overjoyed at the news that Pinto is to go to New York for a year to visit with Pop Audry. See it. It's "Great an' Glorious."

Then, also, we have with us again Roscoe (Fatty)) Arbuckle in his funniest comedy, "The Garage." In this picture, one of the funniest yet produced, Fatty and Buster are employed in a garage, which, incidentally, is also the town lock-up and fire house. Fatty is desperately in love with Molly, the daughter of the owner, Rube. He has, however, a rival in the person of the town dude. Rube favors the dude, and forbids his daughter to have anything to do with the fat man. The girl protests and is locked in her room. And then happens a series of events that would take all the joy out of the picture if they were told here. Suffice to say, Fatty saves the girl from a fire and Rube consents to their marriage.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 8th, 9th and 10th—three special days—continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. Lew Cody in "The Beloved Cheater." Lew Cody has endeared himself to the screen fans of the world by the finished art with which he depicts the most difficult roles. He has made love to the beautiful heroine and then won the scowls of his spectators by the exquisite villainy of his work as the heavy. This is real Art. So it has been by the demand of the public which he has won that Lew Cody is acclaimed a star and Robertson-Cole congratulated themselves upon obtaining such a perfect example of the photodramatic art in his first vehicle, "The Beloved Cheater." Also as an added feature to our regular program the clever comedian, Harold Lloyd, in his latest and best two-part comedy, "His Royal Slyness." He's sly; she's shy—you'll laugh till you cry. He's a riot; she's— Come and see what she is. See these ticklers of the nation's funny bone. It's a scream.

The Vernon Theatre

The Vernon theatre, located at 51st St. and Vernon Ave, in the Washington Park district, has been purchased by James F. Barry, better known as "Jim" Barry, one of the best known and most popular men in the Auburn Park and Englewood districts, and he extends a cordial invitation to his friends to come over and give his new house the "once over." It is a pretty 800-seat house, with all of the latest and best improved movie appliances, projectors, screens and all that makes for the best showing of the best pictures. It will be of interest to Englewood people to know that "Jimmy" Coston of the "Harvard" does all the booking for the house, so the patrons may rest assured of the best in the film world at the earliest possible showing. From this issue the Vernon will be regularly represented in the Englewood Times theatre pages, and a short synopsis of the coming week's attractions given. Watch for the Vernon, as "Jim" Barry will make it one of the finest and best on the south side.

Today, Friday, Feb. 6th, Douglas Fairbanks in "When the Clouds Roll by." A snappy romance of youth and love, full of laughter and happiness, thrills and daring.

Saturday, Feb. 7th, matinee and night, Bryant Washburn in "Too Much Johnson." A scandalous tale of an erring spouse who put the "try" in triangle. But too much mother-in-law spoiled his fun, and his plans petered out like this.

Sunday, Feb. 8th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m., double feature program, H. B. Warner in "Haunting Shadows." A film version of the great mystery story, "The House of a Thousand Candles," by Meredith Nicholson. Also official exploits of the German Submarine U-35, one of the greatest sensations of the year; 3,000 thrills, heart-gripping and intense.

Monday, Feb. 9th, Alice Joyce in "Slaves of Pride." Alice Joyce plays the part of an all-conquering, soul-stirring woman, Patricia. Always a favorite, no one can see Alice Joyce in "Slaves of Pride" without saying that her winning, lovable personality surpasses any story that may be created for her.

Tuesday, Feb. 10th, double feature program, Will Roberts in "Jubilo"; also Charlie Chaplin in "The Rink." Two-star productions. See them.

Wednesday, Feb. 11th, Enid Bennett in "The Woman in the Suitcase." A story of love and home and the "double standard" that haunts women's hearts—perhaps the story of a home you know.

Foolish Confession

He advertised in his window
Some long and silky hose.
These will attract the ladies,
As everybody knows.
Yet all who stopped to view them
Read what he said, then passed.
He couldn't understand it—
His wisdom was not vast.
For this is what he'd written—
The burden of his song:
"Buy quick—they are a bargain;
And they won't last long!"

Casey says: "Sum wimmin do be good lookin' until they finds ut out."

Casey advises: "If yez must look at another's faults—shut your eyes."

It wasn't so hard going from the old nickel show up to the 25 cent variety, but it sure is hard to have the rents increased.

We may now save a cent on a trip to the city, ride both ways for 15 instead of 16 cents. Hurray, this is the first blow against old H. C. L., but I wonder if he knows it yet?

It's a lot of fun watching the profiteers squirm as they have to face the iron hearted income tax man. Most newspaper men would like awful well to have to pay a big income tax, but they are shy on the income—that's all.

Our opinion of a "raise" depends upon who the "raise" is on. If we get the "raise" it is good, if the raise is against us, it is bad.

There was company at the house, and one of the ladies said, "Oh dear me. I've got a fly in my jam," and "I'll bet it's the worst jam he was ever in." And now he gets cold pancakes for breakfast.

The immortal Lincoln at a newspaper men's banquet told a story of meeting a lady who frankly told him he was the homeliest man she had ever seen, and he answered that he guessed that was true, but that he couldn't help it, at which the woman rejoined, "No, but you could stay at home." Thus he apologized for being out of his sphere among the scribes.

Mike sat busily engaged in copying the names of the male population of the immediate vicinity. His good wife, noting the apparent industry of her lord, asked what he was doing. "Begorra, an' it's wroitin' the names o' the min phwat Oi kin lick, so Oi am!" he exclaimed. A few minutes later the woman put on her shawl and went to Casey's humble home, where she informed him that she saw his name on the list. Without waiting to don his coat Casey sallied forth in search of Mike, who was found still engaged at the list. "Moike," said Casey, in a tone that sounded like the thunders of heaven, "they say as how yez air makin' a lisht o' the felleys yez kin lick an' thot me name's on it." "An' so 'tis," retorted Mike. "But," exclaimed Casey, shaking his fist close to Mike's proboscis, "yez can't do it!" "Thin Oi'll scratch yer name off," said Mike, feebly, and he continued adding to the list.

Death of Vernon E. Nichols

Vernon E. Nichols, vice president of the First National Bank of Englewood, died at his home, 6704 Stewart ave., Friday after a brief illness, and his funeral, which was private, occurred Monday afternoon, interment at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Vernon Nichols came to Englewood in his early youth and has been associated with his father, J. J. Nichols, in the banking business since, and for many years has been the cashier of Englewood's only national bank. He was a man of sterling character, honest, upright and conservative, who felt the responsibility of his position and did his duty as he saw it unswervingly, and had the utmost confidence of a host of friends. To his friends he was warm hearted and loyal and his counsel and advice was sought by many. Every one in Englewood feels they have lost a friend, and it will be many days before another will arise to take the place of Vernon Nichols.

Mrs. Nichols died about two years ago, and since then Mr. Nichols' life has been a lonely one, as his only daughter, Mrs. Michel Kornarski, lives in Akron, Ohio, and the two boys, Edwin and Vernon Jr., are away at school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nichols, who were in California, returned home Thursday.

Guest Day of E. H. P. T. A.

Englewood High School Parent-Teachers Association will hold their regular meeting in Junior hall Wednesday, Feb. 11th, 2:30 p. m., as school will be closed in honor of Lincoln's birthday. Every member is requested to be present and bring a friend, as this is "guest day" in honor of "founders' day." A special program has been prepared and refreshments will be served.

Englewood High P. T. A. to Meet

The Englewood High Parent-Teacher Association will hold its next meeting Wednesday, Feb. 11 at 2:30 p. m., at which time the parents of the newest freshies will be cordially welcomed.

During the past two weeks a special effort has been made by the membership committee to reach these parents by personally visiting the graduating classes of the grade schools tributary to Englewood High School, to present the notice and invitation, so it is expected that an unusually large number will be present at next Wednesday's meeting.

Auburn Park's New Hospital

Dr. S. A. Waterman has surrendered the ownership of this excellent institution into the hands of a competent board of business men and professionals and work will soon be commenced in building the most modern, strictly 150 per cent perfect hospital in the city. It will be non-sectarian and a real public hospital that our community may be proud of. The architect's plans will soon be ready and the new governing board announced. In the mean time it is up to all of our peaple to join hands in securing this much needed institution, and take a hand in the permanent organization.

British Labor Ministry

The Sunday Evening Club of Englewood has been endeavoring to secure a speaker who could reveal the remarkable developments in the labor situation in Britain, and yet who had enough knowledge of American conditions to make some application to our situation.

Such a lecturer is secured in Hector McQuarrie, of the British labor ministry, author of "How to Live at the Front," and "Over Here." He knows the war, knows after-war situations in Britain, and knows America. Englewood is privileged to have this lecturer of rapidly growing popularity and fame.

Glenwood Preble offers a good musical program with the choir and Louise J. Gould, popular contralto soloist.

Dr. R. A. White will make the address.

Robert H. Harper of the 149th artillery will sing and other fine numbers are included in the program.

We expect every one of our returned boys to be present and will be disappointed if every alumnus who knows of the service does not attend.

The friends of "our boys" are invited also.

Kindly help us to make this a great service by spreading the above information.

Sincerely yours,
Alfred C. Crawford, Pres., '99.
Miss Lida R. Pendry, Vice-Pres., '09.
Miss Anna Lisle, Secretary, '06.
B. H. Barnes, Treasurer, '07.

Armenia's Call to America

A pageant entitled "Armenia's Call to America" or a "Plea in Behalf of the Starving People of Bible Lands" will be given in Pilgrim Congregational Church next Wednesday evening, Feb. 11th, at 8 p. m.

The pageant next Wednesday evening will be presented by 25 members of the Sunday School and the proceeds go to increase this fund for relief.

There will be other features on the program—also Armenian songs and music.

The public is invited to enjoy the evening and help in this most worthy cause.

Aldermanic Candidates

The first non-partisan aldermanic election will occur on Tuesday, the 24th of February, and there will be no party columns or distinguishing marks, each name heading the list on an equal number of ballots and any candidate receiving a majority of all the votes cast will be declared elected, but in the event of no one having a majority, the two highest will have to run again. The names on the ballots for the 31st ward will be Ald. T. F. Moran, R. L. Wolfe and D. L. Swamson. In the 32nd ward are Ald. J. H. Lyle, H. Groenier, J. G. Clay, D. Anderson, C. A. Bard, and J. L. Wellington.

Too Late for Publication

There is no use sending us "copy" later than Wednesday afternoon, as we cannot possibly publish it. Every week we are compelled to make this announcement, but some people seem to think we can accept "copy" up to Thursday and send it to us, and if not available for the next issue we must consign it to the waste paper basket.
